Description
Provide a short description of the event and its activities.
The fourth and last in-person-meeting of the MuRem-Network took place in Vienna from February 12th to February 14th, 2024. Our program provided insights into the Austrian memory discourses and multiperspective Holocaust remembrance projects, and space for dialogue on the topics and questions that have challenged us at previous events and/or have remained open. In collaboration with our Austrian partners, we have curated a program that will enable us to engage in an in-depth exchange on the following topics: remembrance of persecution of homosexuals and Roma and Sinti, remembrance in diverse societies, resistance and collaboration in collective memory, museum representations of genocide, war and peace. We decided to put a focus on these topics as they accompanied us through the previous project events, thereby giving the chance to continue and wrap-up the discussions. We also used our final in-person MuRem meeting to reflect on the joint MuRem workshops, draw conclusions, collect questions and discuss possibilities for future cooperations. Day 1, February 12th: Introduction round of the MuRem-Network and welcome by the project team and the OeAD (Austria's Agency for Education and Internationalisation) which hosted the event in their rooms in Vienna. A keynote by Ljiljana Radonic from the Austrian Academy of Sciences on "Museum representations of genocide and war in comparison, politics of remembrance in East-Central and South-East Europe". Visit of the special exhibition of the Jewish Museum Vienna about "Peace", Q&A and discussion with the curators and educators of the exhibition Day 2, February 13th: Two parallel workshops in the morning: 1) Cultures of Remembrance in diverse societies (hosted by Robert Obermaier (ERINNERN:AT) and Anna Hampel (Minor); 2) Resistance and collective memory (hosted by Tanja Lenuweit (Minor) and Aya Zarfati (House of the Wannsee Conference)). Afternoon: City walk tour offered by the Vienna organization "QWIEN" with a focus on queer life in Vienna in the first half of the 20th century, the Nazi persecution of homosexuals and the queer community's fight for recognition since 1945. Workshop about the history and remembrance of the genocide committed against European Roma and Sinti during the National Socialist era, including discussion of educational materials (hosted by Patrick Siegele (ERINNERN:AT) and Mirjam Karoly (Romano Centro). Day 3, February 14th: Open space for the Murem network members to discuss questions and topics that came up during the MuRem events and still needed space to discuss. Feedback and outlook to ways of future cooperation. For a more detailed workshop report and the program, see: https://murem.minor-kontor.de/_veranstaltungen/workshop-multiperspectivity-in-challenging-times/
